

Horizon Reading Choice Board

Please choose 1 activity daily to complete. You will need to send a photo of the completed activity to Ms. Owens through SeeSaw each day. (This must be your child's actual work.) The book chosen can count towards the 20 minutes of reading for the regular classroom. If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at aowens.bps@catoosa.k12.ga.us. I will check email daily.

1. Read a non-fiction book and list 5 text features and explain what you learned from them. (Use complete sentences)	2. Read a fiction book and determine the theme/lesson learned— provide evidence to support your answer. The theme of the story is ...because...	3. Read a fiction book and describe at least 3 cause and effect examples in detail. Make a t-chart to show your examples.	4. Make a set of flashcards that describes at least four types of figurative language.	5. Read a fiction book and write a summary of the text and tell the point of view the story is being told.
6. Write a letter to a friend using at least 4 types of figurative language; underline the examples.	7. Read a fiction book. Create a booklet about your book. Include the main characters, story line, interesting moments, and your favorite parts.	8. Read a fiction text; think about the main character and how you would describe him/her. When you finish your book, write down 3 inside traits Provide text evidence/reasons why you chose those traits.	9. Read a nonfiction text. Write down your top 3 favorite facts that the text taught you. (Answer in complete sentences.)	10. Read a fiction story. Rewrite the story from another character's point of view. (Remember when we read The Three Little Pigs and The True Story of the Three Little Pigs.)
11. Read a nonfiction text. Create a 10 question quiz and answer key.	12. Read a fiction text. Create 4 questions you would like to ask a character in the story.	13. Choose two books you have read. Create a Venn Diagram comparing and contrasting the stories.	14. Read a fiction text. Write a letter to one of the characters. Tell him or her what you liked about them and ask at least one question.	15. Read a nonfiction text. What is the main idea? Give 3 details to support the main idea. (Answer in complete sentences)